Charming Historic Apartment with Panoramic Garden in Montefollonico, Tuscany

Description: In the heart of the enchanting historic center of Montefollonico, a short distance from renowned destinations such as Pienza and Montepulciano, stands a unique second-floor apartment, offering an extraordinary opportunity to live or invest in an authentically characterized property.

Key Features:

- Central Location: Positioned in the main square of Montefollonico, this apartment enjoys a privileged location with panoramic views of the valley, Cortona, and Lake Trasimeno.
- Style and Design: Bright open-space living with an open kitchen, overlooking the main square. The unique design and vibrant colors give this home a lively and welcoming atmosphere.
- Panoramic Garden: The ground floor is dedicated to a charming cellar with access to the private garden on the ancient town walls, a tranquil oasis with breathtaking views.
- Attic Potential: Ample attic space, ideal for conversion into a studio or multipurpose space, offering internal development opportunities.

Interior Description: The apartment, situated in a historic 14th-century building, underwent renovation approximately 10/15 years ago, preserving the charm of the era. The open-space living area opens onto the main square, while the sleeping quarters consist of three bedrooms with panoramic views and a bathroom with a shower.

Potential and Usage: Ideal as a primary residence for those seeking an alternative lifestyle and appreciating the freshness of life's beautiful aspects. Also perfect as a second home, its central location allows full enjoyment of the beauty of the area without the need for a car. Moreover, the option to continue tourist rentals provides additional income potential.
